APPOMATTOX FAIR

Large Crowds—Fine Racing—Prizes Awarded

Last week was a gala week for Appomattox. Crowds attended the exhibit of Appomattox products from every section.

The farm products, especially garden products, were pronounced by judges to be the best shown at any Fair this season. The Judges commented favorably on the fine exhibit of tobaccos, corn, apples and garden products.

The Fair was also voted a great success financially, it being the only year of fair weather for every day. The officers are to be congratulated for their unselfish work in putting on the show without pay. The Appomattox Brass Band enlivened the occasion with good music, and the general spirit of officers and visitors all contributed to the enjoyment of the occasion. The officers plan more liberal prizes and a bigger show than ever for the next annual festival in October, 1921.

Lay your plans now to have some show stock and products for the next great Appomattox show.

Continued to next week

Forest View

Oh! this beautiful autumn weather; how we love it!

The people of this vicinity attended the Appomattox Fair last week and seemed to enjoy it very much—talking to old friends and acquaintances.

We are interested in the Widows' contest and want to know who were the lucky ones to receive the nice candy. That was a hard job, for there were so many good looking widows in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Wooldrige spent last Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. J. A. Martin, near Spring Mills.

Mr. W. T. Nash last Saturday afternoon had the misfortune to break his right arm while cranking his truck. We hope it is not serious.

We are glad to note Miss Ella Morris is out again, after a bad spell of asthma.

Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Sims and children spent Sunday with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs R W Martin. Her sister, Miss Bessie, accompanied her back to spend a few days.

Miss Edith Ford is getting along nicely with her school at Petty's Fork.

Misses Emma and Susan Haar were visiting Mrs R W. Martin a few days ago.

Mr. Hardy Shields returned home Saturday evening from Lynchburg hospital to find his baby had died a short while before his return. The child was buried at Central cemetery Sunday. His wife is also sick. Our sympathy goes out to this family in their bereavement.

Wishing the paper much success.

Evergreen

Mr C S McDearmon spent the week end in Roanoke attending Billy Sundays' meeting

Mr. B B Pulliam is attending the Baptist Evangilistic meeting in Lynchburg this week

Mrs. J R Lee, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs Browning, in Richmond has returned to her home here.

Misses Earle and Ida May Farrar are attending the Billy Sunday meeting in Roanoke and also Mrs. J. R. Hamilton and Mrs. Sam Jennings. Billy draws the crowd.

Mr and Mrs. Henry Clark, of Lynchburg, were the Sunday guests of Mr and Mrs Moody Wooldridge.

Mrs E E. Walker, Mrs Ben Gunter, Mr and Mrs. J J Farrar attended the fourth quarterly conference at Epworth last week. It was an interesting conference, but sad, for it is the last one that the Presiding Elder and pastor will hold on this charge, as both will be changed at the coming conference

Mrs John St Clair and little daughter, Nedra, were the guests of Mrs J J Farrar last week and attended Appomattox fair.

Mr William Lee, of Roanoke, was the guest of his brother, Mr. J R Lee, last week.

Mrs Emma Godsey has gone to Roanoke to spend the winter with her niece, Mrs. John St Clair.

Miss Essie Smith, of Lynchburg, Miss Virginia Adams and Mr. Vance Harvey, of Pamplin, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. R Conner Sunday.

The lime bin which the farmers are building here is about completed and they hope to soon have the lime ready for delivery.

Sugar is selling in Richmond at 12½c a pound.

THE "OLD RELIABLE"
THEDFORD'S BLACK-DRAUGHT

White Haired Alabama Lady Says She Has Seen Medicines Come and Go But The "Old Reliable" Thedford's Black-Draught Came and Stayed.

Dutton, Ala.—In recommending Thedford's Black-Draught to her friends and neighbors here, Mrs. T. F. Parks, a well-known Jackson County lady, said: "I am getting up in years; my head is pretty white. I have seen medicines and remedies come and go but the old reliable came and stayed. I am talking of Black-Draught, a liver medicine we have used for years—one that can be depended upon and one that will do the work.

"Black-Draught will relieve indigestion and constipation if taken right, and I know for I tried it. It is the best thing I have ever found for the full, uncomfortable feeling after meals. Sour stomach and sick headache can be relieved by taking Black-Draught. It aids digestion, also ssists the liver in throwing off impurities. I am glad to recommend Black-Draught, and do, to my friends and neighbors."

Thedford's Black-Draught is a standard household remedy with a record of over seventy years of successful use. Every one occasionally needs something to help cleanse the system of impurities. Try Black-Draught. Insist upon Thedford's, the genuine.
